Brief Agency History: The Free Store Food Bank was founded in 1971 to serve residents in Hamilton County along with residents of more than 19 other counties in Southern Ohio. The agency is divided into two divisions, the Food Bank and client services. The main provision of service from the Free Store is casework through an interview to assure that everyone that comes, receives either direct support or a referral to another agency for assistance. The Representative Payee Program, a main program of client services, provides assistance to mentally ill individuals receiving disability income.
